Seattle Boat Show ‘Must Seas’

Three locations and plenty of boats of note at the West Coast’s Largest Boat Show

SEATTLE – When the Seattle Boat Show sails into town on Friday, January 26, 2018, there will be THREE locations full to the gunnels with new exhibitors, new brands and boat debuts. In all, there will be more than 40 exhibitors at CenturyLink Field Event Center and dozens of boat debuts indoors and on the water at Bell Harbor Marina and South Lake Union. This year the boats on display are built from as close as Seattle, Bremerton and Arlington and as far away as Finland and New Zealand. From the debut of Eastern, Seaway, Rosborough and Targa boats, to the reappearance of Catalina Sailboats in the market after a hiatus of several years, to the nation’s number one selling tow boat brand, there’s something for everyone. If you wakesurf, waterski, fish, kayak, cruise or race, under power or sail, on boats small or large this show’s for you.

As of press time some of the boats of note include:

Bell Harbor

From Alexander Marine comes #011 of Ocean Alexander’s OA 100, a West Coast debut for this boat. Also being shown for the first time in Seattle is the new 70E, the first model of the new Evolution Series of yachts, built in Florida.

Sundance Yacht Sales will have 11 boats on display at Bell Harbor Marina and eight indoors. At Bell Harbor, the Prestige 520 and Prestige 680 will both be making their West Coast debut. The 520 has an XXL flybridge, unique on a motor yacht of 52 feet according to Sundance, and the 680 boasts twin 900 hp Volvo Penta IPS1200s so it can cruise comfortably at 25 knots and tops out at 30 knots.

From Jeanneau comes the Leader line of inboard Express models and the 40 and 46 will be on display for the first time at a Seattle Boat Show.
