Lake Union Sea Ray Debuts Over 100 Boats during the 2019 Seattle Boat Show

Largest boat show display on record in the United States

Seattle, WA: Lake Union Sea Ray, a locally owned boat dealer announced today that they will showcase over 100 new boats during the 2019 Seattle Boat Show. This will be the largest boat display on record for any boat show in the U.S. The company's portfolio features the best brands in boating including Sea Ray, MasterCraft, Bayliner & Hey Day, Monte Carlo Yachts, Boston Whaler and Lowe Boats.

Lake Union Sea Ray will have eighty-one boats on display at the indoor Century Link Event Center, six boats at the afloat display at South Lake Union and thirteen demo boats at their Lake Union location. Their indoor boat show display will be the largest by a single boat dealer under one roof. To schedule a private viewing for the models on display, visit www.lakeunionevents.com for appointments and contact information.

Founded in 1986, Lake Union Sea Ray is the largest boat dealer on the West Coast, featuring three locations in Seattle, Fife and Bellingham. They offer boat sales, marine service centers and accessories sales at each location.
